A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment, Radical cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spormatorrhea, Induced by Self Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Consumptione, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—by Robt. J. Calverwell, M. D. author of the "Green Book." &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cleaply, privately and radically,

To Phis Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

HARPER & BROTHERS, New York

A Repository of Fashion, Pleasure, and In-HARPER'S BAZAR.

ILLUTSRATED. Notices of the Press.

The Bezar is edited with a combination of tack and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion—Beston Treveller.

The Bezar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to patterns for the children's clothes, to patterns find a purious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bezar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fire-side enjoyment it affords.—N. F. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays its poetry and squibs, are all invigorating to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal. Notices of the Press.
